

Sun Bid

It is our wish to hold SUN on November 8th 2014, at Church New Life Assembly in Pierre South Dakota This is a Regional project to bring our Laurels and artisans out to the western part of the kingdom to share the love and knowledge they have for the Arts and Sciences they endeavor to research and recreate.

The cost of site is free, and the facility has a main hall 60' x 100' with plenty of chairs and tables located on the ground floor, 5 classrooms varying by size and amenities one could be used for Royalty room. A workshop on site for metal, wood, general crafting. A large yard for combat if participants want. The site is a no wet zone, but maybe able to expo brewing and vinting, consumption must be done at alternate site 3 minutes away. A large upstairs room that can hold 50 people for larger classes, Has a stage for possible court or other arts such as performing art. As well a kitchen with two stoves and access to main hall.

We are your best choice not only because of the beautiful site, but because we are all dedicated to see the success of this event happen.
